

Call out to South Parish residents

Seeking donations of old plates, glasses and fabric
Seeking participants for workshops and performances

La Cocina Pública/The Public Kitchen at Cork Midsummer Festival

"Every city, town and village has its own secret recipes that don't appear on official menus. It is food 'al natural' that doesn't come from recipe books." Alfonso Alcace (1972)

Housed in a shipping container La Cocina Pública is a mobile kitchen that brings people together through theatre, food and dining. Taking place outside on Sawmill Street in front of Coláiste Daibhéid/St John's Central College for 5 public dining events from 17 June until 23 June. Special ticket rate of 13.50 Euro for South Parish residents. See www.corkmidsummer.com for details.

Teatro Container of Valparaíso, Chile invite the residents of the South Parish area to participate in La Cocina Pública. There are a number of ways you can participate:

Donate china plates, bowls, tea cups and sauces, glasses and fabric for the workshops and dining events. Drop off points: Nano Nagle Place, South Presentation Centre, Douglas Street and Cork Flower Studio, 104 Douglas Street. Deadline for drop offs: Monday 10 June.

Also, join us in sharing recipes and stories, making bunting and decorations or cooking and hosting for the dining events from Friday 14 June onwards. Please email kath@corkmidsummer.com or pop into Cork Flower Studio, 104 Douglas Street, Cork to add your name to the sign-up sheet.

Funded by Cork City Council, University College Cork, Ministerio De La Cultura, Las Artes Y El Patrimonio, HSE Cork Kerry Community Healthcare - Cork South Community Work Department, Douglas Street Business Association and Down2Earth Materials.

With additional support from St John's Central College, Coláiste Daibhéid, Cork Flower Studio, Healthy Cities Cork, Green Spaces for Health, Cork Food Policy Council, The Lantern Project, Nano Nagle Place, Cork Migrant Centre, The Mature Student Office, UCC, and Centre for Adult Continuing Education, UCC. This is a South Parish Learning Neighbourhood Event.

SOUTH PARISH RESIDENTS – DATES FOR YOUR DIARY!

Food Memories

People willing to share memories of food, recipes etc with Teatro Container Director for a cup of tea and a chat.

Daytime/evenings anytime during 10, 11, 12 June

Meeting point in the South Parish area – wherever suits you!

Cooks wanted

Calling anyone with an interest with food willing to lend a hand during some of the dining performances on 17, 19, 21, 22 and 23 June.

Monday 10 June - 7PM

Meet the team at Teatro Container on Sawmill Street (next to St John's)

Musicians, storytellers and performers wanted

People willing to perform during some of the dining performances on 17, 19, 21, 22 and 23 June. Tell a story, play an instrument...and more.

Wednesday 12 June - 7PM

Meet the team at Teatro Container on Sawmill Street (next to St John's)

Participate in sewing, cooking and performance workshops

Suitable for all ages from 5 years upwards. The workshops are free. Children under 12 years must attend with a parent/carer.

Friday 14 June – 3PM until 6PM

Saturday 15 June – 3PM until 6PM

Sunday 16 June – 3PM until 6PM

Workshops at Teatro Container on Sawmill Street (next to St John's)

INTERESTED IN PARTICIPATING?

Contact Francesca on 086 2602493 or email Francescaredcesca@gmail.com

Contact Kath on 089 4228073 or email kath@corkmidsummer.com